

FEAST DOWNEAST LOCAL FOOD CONFERENCE

Friday, February 16, 2018 | 8:30 am - 3 pm | UNCW Burney Center

Feast Down East's 8th annual Local Food Conference will bring together all those in our community who are invested in supporting and growing the regional food system of southeastern North Carolina. This includes farmers and fishermen, food retailers and establishments, consumers, advocates and community leaders. The purpose of the conference is to strengthen the activities of these groups and the networks between them. The 2018 Local Food Conference is co-presented by the Cape Fear Food Council, a grassroots collaboration working toward a thriving, equitable food system in this region.
